toplink UC One – Cloud communication and collaboration

With UC One, you can access your communication and important information from anywhere – whether laptop, smartphone or tablet. This allows you to increase your productivity and that of your colleagues and complete more tasks in less time – everything from one single application.

Your benefits at a glance

- Workflow optimization
  Access relevant information and documents from anywhere – all directly from one single application.

- Faster responses
  No need to jump back and forth between different applications. This allows you to respond faster to certain situations.

- Use on any device
  Whether on the desktop, tablet or smartphone – you can use UC One on any device from anywhere.

- Conferences at a single click
  You have your own personal MyRoom conference call room. With just one click, you can easily open or participate in telephone conferences.

- Integration of other applications
  By integrating the hub, you can include information from other applications. These are then displayed according to the context.

- Easy collaboration
  UC One is more than a simple telephone system. UC One also provides desktop sharing and file sharing.

The reason to opt for toplink:

- All services are hosted in Germany
- toplink products are integrated seamlessly into one another
- Available everywhere from the cloud
- Flexible and fast responses to customer needs
- toplink develops, implements and operates
